VAST TERRITORY IS OPENED FOR ENTRY

Millions of Acres of Arid Land in Southern Utah May Now Be Settled.

Official notice has just been received at the local United States Land office that $3,395,840 acres of arid land in the southwestern part of the state has been thrown open to settlement under the enlarged homestead act of February 19, 1909. Various parts of townships 10 to 38, inclusive, will be opened up. The land extends from Robinson to Cedar City, and from the Utah-Nevada line on the west to Beaver. Some of the land includes large areas of desirable territory under the conditions embraced in the new law.

The land lies in Utah, Juab, San pete, Millard, Sevier, Beaver and Iron counties, but the most valuable land is that in the vicinity of Sevier lake, in Sevier county, which had not, prior to the recent order, been open for entry. Under the provisions of the act, which is known as the "Smoother" law, settlers may take up 320 acres of non-irrigable land, but the lands entered must be reasonably compact, not exceeding one and one-half miles in length in any one filing. The fees exacted by the government are the same as those required to be paid under the general homestead act. The commissions will be determined, however, by the area of the lands entered.

Those who have filed on homesteads in the southern part of the state under the original act, but have not yet entered final proof may increase their holdings to 320 acres by additional filings. In the final proofs it must be shown that, in addition to the improvement required on original homestead lands, at least one-eighth of the added land has been placed under cultivation.

(By W. T. Little)

When Rather Royal finished two lengths in front of Cardinal Sarto in the last race at the Fair grounds yesterday, it was the end of what will pass into history in Ogden racing as a memorable battle between layers and slayers with the former at a great advantage. In fact, the day was about as disastrous for the bookies as they have experienced in a long time. Picking five favorites is quite a feat for even the old time follower of the turf and the fact that Ogdenites accomplished this shows that the "sport of kings" has taken a firm hold on the community, which is evidence that the game under the same kind of management which now controls it, will thrive and grow in popular favor.

The attendance was surprising considering the fact that it was the day after opening day. As a general rule the day after is somewhat lessened, but not so with Ogden. The grand stand contained almost as many enthusiasts as it did the first day of the meeting, the Salt Lake City contingent being quite as large. In fact, so big was the crowd and so much larger than the management expected, that the program was disposed of before the field was called to the post in the first race. This is quite an unusual event on any race track, except, perhaps, on big holidays. Manager Murray was quite elated over the showing.

"It proves conclusively," said he in closing upon the day's events, "that the people of Ogden will support a first class meeting. At the outset I promised clean, high class racing and I was never fearful that such efforts would go unrewarded. My convictions have been verified and now that I have the assurance that the people of this city support a wholesome sport, I will be spurred on to give, if possible, even a more pretentious program than I first contemplated."

NEWS FROM THE FAIR GROUND

Trainer Joe Cooper after May Bride won the first race had a smile on him that owner W. T. Anderson might have seen in California if the snow capped mountains had not been in the way, and by the way, Joe had a special box car berth that he wouldn't vacate, when "Busy Jimmy" called out "twenty minutes for dinner" on the special from Los Angeles to Ogden.

Some of the boys who arrived today have vague recollections of Otis, Nevada, where the railroad company said that was as far as they could ride at the company's convenience. There are still more to follow.

Jockey Stille, who on arriving here weighed 115 pounds, can now ride at 103 pounds. A great many horse lovers cleared up on Mary Genevieve to show, the opening day. He is very alert at the post and knows the shortest way home.

Sam'l Stern, who occupied the position of entry clerk at Butte, Salt Lake and El Paso meetings has charge of the betting ring here. All the boys are with you Sam.

Among the best work-outs yesterday were Markie Mayer and Dora Paine, both worked 3-8 of a mile in 38 seconds.

The form players who saw Rather Royal's good race the opening day thought it must have been bargain day, when the book makers laid 4 to 1 against the old gelding's chances yesterday.

D. W. Thomas the owner of Creston, was satisfied with even money before the race, and felt, and the race proved, that he knew the condition of his horse.

Owner of Anna May told all his friends that if they needed a new spring suit to let Anna May.

Mr. McIver, who has the program privilege at the Fair grounds, never seems tired telling the visitors that Ogden is a very progressive town. Before the first race was run yesterday there was not a program to be bought on the grounds. Wake up Mr. McIver, before the town runs you.

venile Stakes for two-year-olds at four furlongs, to be run Saturday, June 29, and the Independence Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile, to be run Saturday July 3. The Decoration Day and Independence Handicaps each has a juvenile value of $1000, and the Juvenile $700. Entries for these stakes may be made through James Hanby.

Over night entries are posted at The Potter Buffet and Cafe, where they have Muncher Hofbrau on draught.

CARPENTERS WALKED OUT

THREATENED STRIKE HAS BEEN PRACTICALLY SETTLED

Members of Unions Consider Matter—Final Decision Not Announced After Meeting.

A little difference as to the scale of wages maintained in Ogden arose yesterday between the carpenters and the contractors which promised a general strike. As it was, carpenters in some of the shops walked out at noon, declaring they would not return to work unless the $4.00 day scale of wages was established and maintained.

The strike was not made general, however, and it was stated last evening that the matter has been practically settled. One of the contractors of the city made the statement, in answer to the question as to the contention on the part of the carpenters for a higher wage, that it was true that some of the carpenters had not been receiving $4.00 a day for their work, but that most of them had been. He said he understood the matter to have been virtually settled and that the men would go back to work this morning.

A meeting of the carpenter's union was held last evening, but no information regarding what transpired would be given out, except that some of the members of the union stated that the strike of yesterday was of no particular significance, and that it involved only a few of the union men of the city.

SEN. STEWART A POOR MAN.

Washington, May 7.—The will of former United States Senator William Stewart of Nevada was filed for probate today. It discloses that he owned no real estate and his personal property did not exceed $1,500 in value. This amount is devised to his widow. Mr. Stewart's debts are said to aggregate $25,000.

Women's Tailor-Made Suits Way Under Price

Here is a stock of suits for women so rich in variety and so filled with the charm of soft color and soft linings that their character, their sterling tailoring, their unusual finishing, are almost forgotten in sheer delight of their beauty.

It is not boasting to say that nowhere, outside of this store in Ogden can richer suits be found and nowhere in Ogden City can suits of such cloth lined with such silks, let alone their charm and individuality, be found under half again as much.

We do not promise you extraordinary suits for $11.75, though we have better suits for this price than you will find elsewhere at $15.00. But at $15.75 there are suits equal in tailoring to any in the city of Ogden and for sale nowhere under $25.00. At $25.00 we have suits that can not be matched under $40.00, yet we are conservative. From these prices they go steadily up to $75.00.

We believe that we can suit any woman who comes here expecting an exquisite piece of tailoring made of the rich cloths rarely seen outside of extravagantly costly tailor shops.
